Corral de Tierra Country Club - Golf Course Etiquette

GOLF COURSE ETIQUETTE

Please replace all divots. Rake or smooth out sand in bunkers after playing out. Repair ball marks (plus one more). Stay up with the group ahead. Faster groups should be allowed to play through if the situation dictates, regardless of size.

DRESS CODE

Corral de Tierra Country Club maintains strict policies on dress code. (Refer to the Dress Code Policy in this packet.)

Corral de Tierra Country Club ask that guests use the appropriate Locker Room located on the lower level of the Clubhouse for changing their attire. Changing footwear in the parking lot is not encouraged.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Cell phones and all electronic devices, including Blackberries and iPods, are only permitted in certain locations at the Club. You may use such devices within the confines of your vehicle or in designated rooms in the Clubhouse, and only for emergencies on the golf courses. Please ask one of our employees for assistance in finding these rooms. If you receive a telephone call while in the Clubhouse, please take the call outside of the building.

SMOKING

Corral de Tierra Country Club has a no-smoking policy throughout the entire Clubhouse.
